David Austin in garden

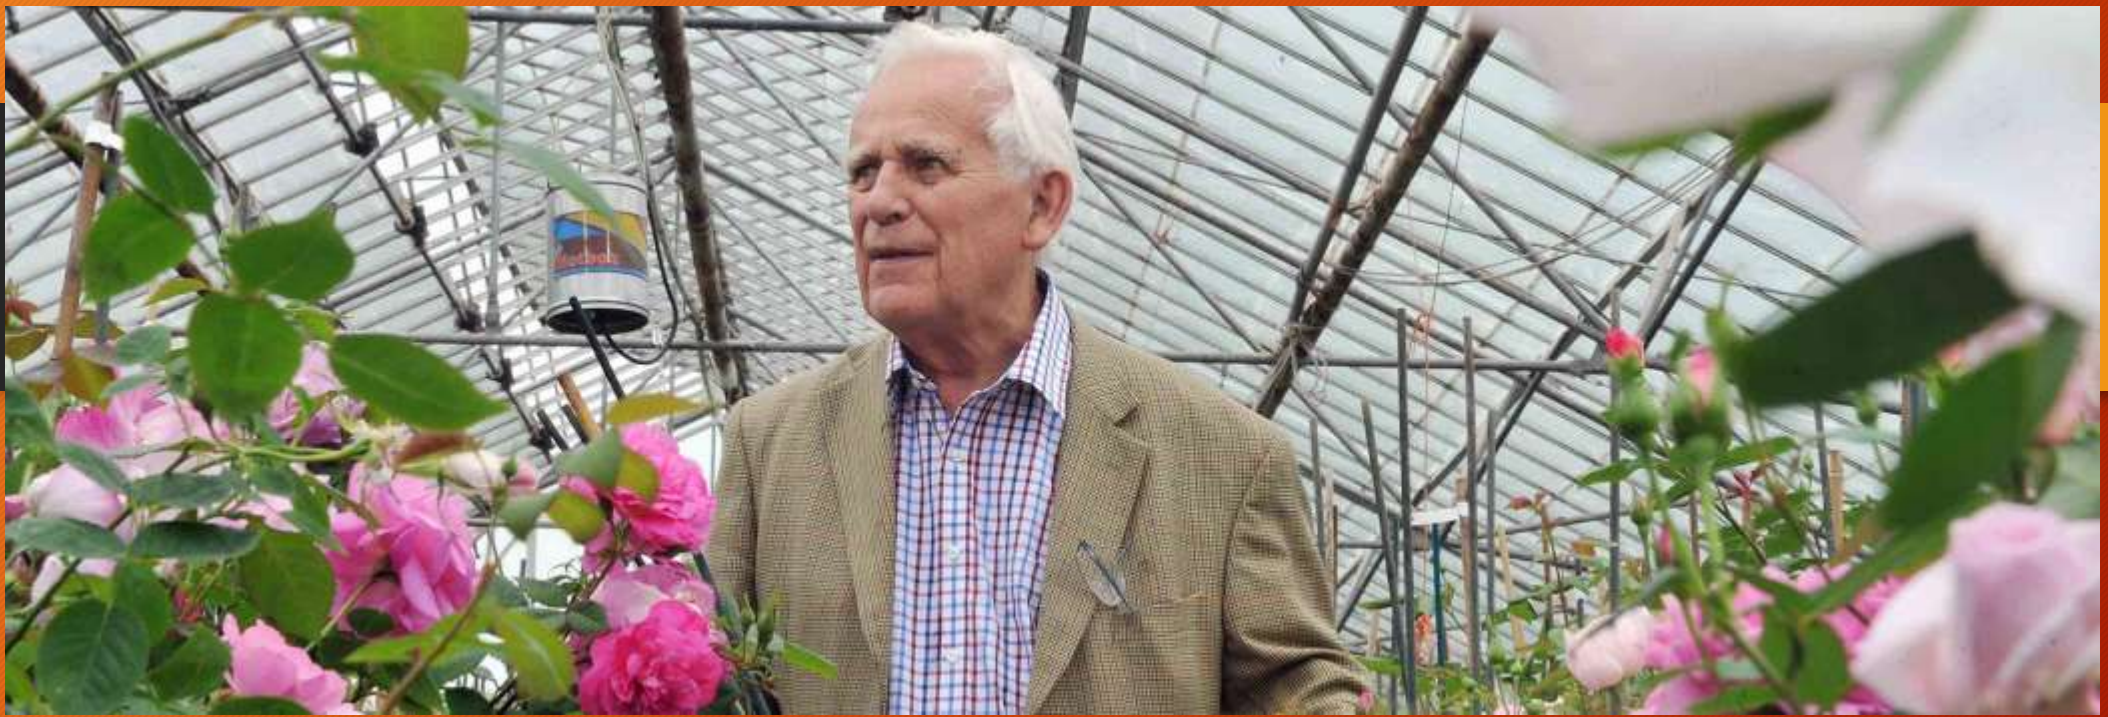

- 1983-Heritage, Mary Rose & Graham Thomas introduced at the Chelsea Flower Show
- He continued to hybridize roses in a wide range of colors-pinks, crimson, cream, yellow, apricot, etc.
- Fragrances include old rose, myrrh, tea, musk & fruit

David Austin in the field

- 2003-Awarded the Victorian Medal of Honor by the Royal Horticultural Society
- 2004-Lifetime achievement award from the Garden Center Association
- 2007-Appointed Officer of the Order of British Empire (OBE) the same year he introduced his 200th English Rose-Munstead Wood
- 2009-Graham Thomas voted World's Favorite Rose by the World Federation of Rose Societies

- 2010-Honored as Great Rosarian of the World
- David Charles Henry Austin, rose breeder, writer and founder of David Austin Roses died on December 18th 2018

- Today-Breeding continues under his son, David J.C. Austin
- Each year 50,000 crosses germinate over 250,000 seedlings
- The best seedlings undergo 8 years of field trials to select 2-4 new varieties each year
- To date David Austin Roses has introduced 240 English Roses

THIRD EDITION

A photograph of an elderly man with white hair, wearing a light-colored jacket over a plaid shirt, looking thoughtfully to the right. He is seated in a garden with lush green foliage and numerous pink roses in bloom. A white rectangular box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing the man's name and dates in a green serif font.
